Dear Sirs or Madams,

Please end the Microsoft controversy as soon as possible in order to return the Department of Justice and its Public Servants to the pressing matters of the Nation and to free the resources at Microsoft to invent new technology that may help the United States economy return to prosperity. I fully believe that the framers of The Constitution of the United States did not intend for our nation's government to become as large and involved as it has in so many places. I would feel much better if the personnel currently assigned to the Microsoft case were reassigned to locate and prosecute the insidiously evil terrorists that have managed to establish themselves here in our homeland. Preventing the loss of innocent lives is a far better pursuit and use of tax dollars.

Respectfully Submitted,
